

SEPTEMBER 2022 NEWSLETTER

Members,
Here is the news from your Board.

General Membership Meeting

- September 22nd at 7:00 p.m. in the Courtroom.
- Sue Opper is still expected to be our Guest Speaker.
- IMPORTANT: Given that the Waukesha Christmas Parade investigation/trial is active, please do not ask specific questions about it, as Ms. Opper will not be allowed to answer them.
- Please keep any questions to generic, procedural questions pertinent to her topic.

Waukesha County Jail Tour

- September 27nd, 6:30 to 9:00.
- Please register by contacting Stephanie Brown (newberlinbrowns@yahoo.com or 414-737-8513).

Police Dog

- The Board signed a sympathy card of behalf of the members of the NBPCAAA for Officer Helm for the death of his partner, Askan.
- Askan's death was unexpected.
- A new dog had been recently obtained by the NBPD, and Officer Lauren Anderson will be its partner. They will start a six-week training course prior to going on duty as a team.

NBPCAAA Embroidered Shirts

- At the next General Meeting, Stephanie will bring an example of the embroidered NBPCAAA shirt that is available to members. Standard sizes are $23.00 and XXLs are $25.00.
- The addition of a personalized name may be one or two dollars additional.

Room Projects at the PD

- Room definitions:
 - Squad Bag Room – The room where officers have assigned cubicle locations and keep their gear bags, coats, etc. – COMPLETED January 2022.
 - Civil Disturbance Room – The ready response/riot gear (gas masks, shields, batons, helmets, etc.) storage room. – Budgeted and approved by the Board. This is second in the queue of projects with Neighbor Dave, the contractor.

- Equipment Room – The staging/recharging/storage room for body cameras, drones, and Tasers. – Waiting for a quote from Neighbor Dave, the contractor, prior to the Board considering and voting on the matter.

Golf Outing

- The Golf Outing was very successful.
- As with any event, there are always ways to improve for the next year. Many thoughts and ideas were presented that we will consider.
